

Peaches and Cream

Written by Denise Ngo

Decodable
Practice
Reader

20A

Long e: Vowel Digraph ea

Bea	eats	meals	peas	peaches	gleam
Bea's	leaps	reach	dear	Dean	please
tea	Dean's	beak	sneaks	speaks	beats
heap	beams	feast	cream	real	treat

Short e: Vowel Digraph ea

bread breath meant head

High-Frequency Words

lives	a	of
to	have	you
the	enough	are

Bea lives by a tree on a farm.
She eats meals of bread and peas.

In summer, ripe peaches gleam
on Bea's tree.
Bea takes a big breath and leaps up.
But she can't reach them.

Bea sends a note to Dean.

"Dear Dean,
Please have tea with me at my tree."

Bea asks, "Can you get the peaches?"
Is Dean's beak sharp enough?
No. The peaches must be meant to stay on the tree.

Bea uses her head when Daisy sneaks by.

Bea speaks to her.

“Can you get the peaches?”

Daisy gets up in the tree and beats on the branch.
Peaches fall in a heap.
Bea beams.

Bea, Dean, and Daisy have a feast.
Peaches and cream are a real treat.